Montelucia
RESORT & SPA™

ARIZONA

Montelucia Resort & Spa brings the essence of Europe to the heart of Scottsdale. Authentic Mediterranean details including a collection of 170 antiquities from Southern Spain and Italy lend a soulful and distinct flavor to the resort's colors, architecture and décor. The breathtaking beauty and soul-stirring surroundings of the resort will ensure perfect moments for meeting and event attendees.

With arching entryways, splashing fountains and floral walkways, Montelucia is an enchanting resort destination featuring 293 luxuriously appointed guestrooms, the Moroccan-inspired Joya Spa, six tempting dining options including the critically-acclaimed Prado restaurant and a variety of refreshing pools. Nestled at the foot of picturesque Camelback Mountain, this luxurious resort's premier location offers easy access to the area's best golf, recreation, shopping, nightlife and entertainment.

MEETING FACILITIES

Accommodations

The resort's 251 guestrooms, 40 luxury suites and two presidential suites are a mix of modern comfort and authentic hand-crafted details. Each guestroom features flat-screen televisions, high-speed and wireless Internet access, individual climate-controls, fully-stocked mini bar, in-room coffee and tea service, feather beds and large working areas. In addition, all guestrooms feature large tiled bathrooms with an oversized bathtub, large walk-in shower with dual showerheads, and audio-visual capabilities. All rooms have private terrace patios with mountain or pool views and living room style seating.

Conference and Meeting Facilities

Flexible, idyllic meeting and event space evokes the mystery and passion of the Old World while serving every modern need. The resort has more than 27,000 square feet of indoor meeting and event space, including the elegant 9,216 square-foot Andalusian Ballroom and the smaller Valencia Ballroom at 4,650 square feet. Montelucia also offers 16 options for separate meeting rooms including the unique venue, Castillo Lucena, which was named after its 16th century, hand-crafted castle doors imported from Lucena, Spain. The resort also boasts 70,000 square feet of outdoor event space in celebration of Scottsdale's more than 300 days of sunshine.

Technology and Business Services

All meeting rooms are equipped with high-speed and wireless Internet access and full multimedia capabilities. Wireless is also available in all public areas. The audio-visual department provides onsite, state-of-the-art equipment and professional services. The resort's business center is equipped with everything guests need to conduct business while away from the office while the Meeting Concierge is available to provide any additional assistance.

Spa & Fitness Center

Inspired by Morocco, the 31,000 square-foot spa features a roof-top pool and pool terrace with breathtaking views of Camelback Mountain, a modern interpretation of a traditional Hammam and 19 total treatment rooms, including five opulent suites.

The state-of-the-art fitness center features treadmills, recumbent and upright bikes, a radiant machine and personal televisions as well as stunning floor-to-ceiling views of Camelback Mountain. A schedule of yoga, Pilates, spinning and more is also available for guests to enjoy.

Golf

The resort has partnered with the area's premier golf courses to offer guests priority tee times and the best pricing options available. Golf partners include Grayhawk, We-Ko-Pa and Troon North.

Other Activities

The resort provides amenities and activities for guests of every age range including four sparkling pools with private cabanas, a bocce court, complimentary bike rentals and cooking demonstrations with Prado's Chef de Cuisine. Stargazing, hikes up neighboring Camelback Mountain and visits to nearby Old Town Scottsdale round out the Montelucia experience.

Dining

The resort features six dining options designed to satisfy any palate. Prado, the resort's signature Four Diamond restaurant, presents an inventive menu of contemporary seasonal cuisine. Within Prado is Mbar, featuring tequila and tapas in an ambiance perfect for socializing. Joya Terrace serves healthful yet flavorful food and drink options while Crave Café offers such favorites as gelato, coffee, sandwiches and wraps. The resort also offers various poolside dining options including ROQ, serving American classics, and Oasis Pavilion, a relaxing setting in which to enjoy light food and cocktails. 24-hour in-room dining is also available.
